Lighting Workshop with Liz Berry

Posted on February 1, 2015

Liz Berry, experienced international lighting designer, and one of the first moving light technicians in the world, working for Vari-Lite at the time, is coming to South Africa and will be presenting a basic three day lighting training workshop at DWR Distribution from 25 to 27 March 2015.

Creative Director / Lighting Designer for Robbie Williams, Roxy Music and Madness, creating the signature lighting moves for Who Wants to be a Millionaire, a regular innovations judge for the PLASA show and more recently involved in 3D stage hologram presentations which use her expertise in lighting and design to make a hologram seem real, this is a very rare opportunity to be trained by one of the best in the world.

The course will cover the functions of lighting on stage, the type of fixtures and what they do, principles of moving light control, controlling moving lights and designing for stage.

The cost is R3 234.07 incl VAT and includes lunch and refreshments.

The training will take place at DWR Distribution, Block C, Unit 1, Kimbult Industrial Park, 9 Zeiss
