

Marlene Riley
Sales Executive

Our lovely Marlene Riley is in the sales team and joined DWR in 2015.

If you have not met her yet, we asked her a few questions ? .

What is your role at DWR?

Officially, Sales Executive, but I am happy to help out were ever needed. I learn more by helping out ?

When did you officially join the company and how are you enjoying it so far?

My first day of work was 7 September 2015. I love working for DWR, I love the passion everyone has (not only in the sales team), the excitement that comes with every project or sale. I love seeing a smile on every face and the laughter and jokes that fly around the office every day.

Have you had a funny or unusual experience since starting?

PLENTY!! Mostly funny, but never anything sinister.

Which fictional character do you believe is the most like yourself?

The Mom from "The Incredibles" – She has the ability to stretch and torte, I feel that all moms need this ability.

Is it better to beg forgiveness or ask permission?

A bit of both! Depending who you ask ?

How would you describe yourself in three words?

Jill of all Trades – OK, its four words, but I am a bit of everything ?
