Audio techs meet for DiGiCo S-Series Training

The group of delegates included freelancers, technicians from rental companies and technical crew from a local church.

“Some of the delegates have used the console for years while others have only started audio more recently, so it was a diverse group,” said Jaco. “Thank you very much to everyone who joined us!” The main emphasis was doing something everyone loved and learning along the way.

The training included demonstration of the DiGiCo S-Series digital mixing console and covered
