

Basic Rigging Training

Posted on March 14, 2023

A poster for a Basic Rigging Training course. The background is dark blue with a complex, overlapping pattern of white and light blue truss structures. The text is arranged in a clean, modern layout. At the top right, 'BOOKINGS ON-LINE' is written in white. The word 'Training' is in a large, white, cursive script. Below it, 'BASIC RIGGING' is in a bold, blue, sans-serif font. A horizontal blue line separates this from the dates 'APRIL 12-13' and the time '9AM - 4PM', which are in white. A blue rounded rectangle contains the text 'JOIN ROBERT IZZETT' in white, followed by the address '@ DWR, Block C, Unit 1 Kimbult Industrial Park, 9 Zeiss Road, Laserpark, Honeydew, JHB' in a smaller white font. At the bottom left, a list of topics is shown in blue and white: 'RIGGING LAWS', 'CALCULATIONS', 'RIGGING HARDWARE', and 'PRACTICAL INSIGHT'. The DWR distribution logo is in the bottom right corner.

Please join Robert Izzett from DWR Distribution for a two-day Basic Rigging training course held from 12 to 13 April at DWR Distribution, Johannesburg where the emphasis will be on safety.

The course aims to equip delegates with the rigging laws applied in South Africa according to SANS 10366. Robert will provide practical insight from calculations to the correct use of rigging, hardware, shackles, steel wire ropes, trussing, endless rounds and chains.

The cost is R500 per person and includes lunch and refreshments.
