

Discovery Graduation Ceremony

14 May 2012

The very first Discovery Graduation Ceremony 2012 was held recently at Vodaworld at Vodadome, Midrand, meticulously put together by renowned events company, Edith Unlimited.

and high profile
attended by 260 people

“The event went wonderfully smooth,” said Theo Rood, Production Manager from MJ Event Gear, who as part of his pre-production work also tested the venues’ LED pillars and projectors prior to set-up to avoid any unforeseen hiccups.

ures washed them
 said Theo. “The
 ”

The lighting

included 24 x Robe 600 LED V textured back-drop, and 12 x T the show on a grandma and th

the screen and used to create a er – Francois van der Merwe, ran meter of the room, also changed tones to compliment the gig.

The show incorporated 16 x 9 format footage and camera work, projected by a Barco 14k HD Projector onto a 8m x 4.5m centre screen.

and input you gave to make that everyone wanted this to
It was a pleasure working

These words were reiterated by Claire Du Plessis, Leadership and Learning Specialist at Discovery People. "... because our standard of excellence is so high, I would like to thank you for not only meeting those standards, but exceeding them! It was a fantastic event, and I have only had great feedback."

music scene, added a involved.

