ESP Vision, Las Vegas, have announced the appointment of DWR Distribution as its distributor for South Africa. DWR Distribution will also be responsible for training and support in the region.

“As a vibrant and growing market, South Africa has tremendous potential for ESP Vision as a powerful lighting design tool, “ said Alan “AJ” Jesse, Director of Marketing and Support for ESP Vision. “As a user of ESP Vision and recognized leader in the South African lighting community, DWR Distribution is the perfect choice to represent our product well in this ever-expanding market.”

According to Duncan Riley, “DWR is honoured to be associated with a product like ESP Vision and look forward to a long and fruitful relationship with ESP Vision.”
