

DWR Closes for the Festive Season

Posted on December 17, 2025

Thank you to our clients and suppliers for a wonderful 2025. We hope that it's a well-deserved break for everyone, and we trust that you will travel safely and have a chance to rest and enjoy this time.

Please see the notification for our office closure, and we look forward to reopening on Tuesday, 6 January.

Merry Christmas, and on behalf of everyone at DWR Distribution, have a very good 2026.
