

DWR closes for the holidays

Posted on December 11, 2024

What a whirlwind this year has been, yet looking back at 2020 feels like a lifetime ago. When our industry bounced back, it did so with incredible energy and determination.

DWR closes for the holidays

One thing that stood out this year is how seriously people are taking the work we do. We're putting in the hours, taking on challenges, and giving our all—grateful for every opportunity that comes our way.

If you've managed to keep up with this pace while still making time for the people you love, you're truly on the right track.

A big thank you to everyone in the industry for your support. Whether it's been a major sale or simply stopping by to say hello, your connection and encouragement mean the world to us.

As we prepare for the festive season, kindly note that DWR will be closing for the holidays this Friday, 13 December, and reopening on Monday, 6 January 2025.

Please remember that we are a phone call away, so if you run into an emergency, please call.

We hope you enjoy a well-deserved break. We can't wait to see you in the new year and trust it will be a good one!

Much love,

The DWR Team
