

DWR closing times

15 December 2010

What a year it has been! Many in the industry were surprised when even after the World Cup the work kept coming. For that we are thankful.

With the Christmas holidays upon us, DWR Distribution would like to extend sincerest gratitude to everyone for your valued support. Enjoy time to rest, to play, and may you experience the joy and peace that this season is really all about.

DWR Distribution will close office on the 15th December 2010 and will reopen on 10th January 2011.
