

DWR Rigging Course to be hosted in February

Posted on December 13, 2019

DWR understands that times are tough and while we all need to tighten our belts, we should never compromise on safety. Safe working practices when rigging and working at heights remains one of the most critical areas in our industry. With this in mind, DWR has worked hard with our partners to reduce the cost of rigging training by 20% for 2020.

The DWR Rigging Course, this year presented by Ruud de Deugd, will be hosted from 10 to 15 February at
