

DWR welcomes Shannon Fagan!

DWR Distribution is pleased to announce the appointment of Shannon Fagan who will step into the position of Accounts Manager.

Born in Zimbabwe before moving to South Africa, Shannon studied accounting and has had four years' experience in the workplace – she is brand new to the entertainment industry. "I am very excited to be here," said Shannon. "It's definitely an opportunity to grow."

As DWR has expanded over the past eleven years, it has become necessary to ease the load of the accounts department. "We are delighted to welcome Shannon to the team and know she will fit perfectly into this family," said Duncan Riley of DWR. "Shannon has a wealth of knowledge and skill, and more importantly, a great attitude. We hope that she will spend many happy years with us."

Shannon is an enthusiastic baker, loves reading and particularly enjoys outdoor activities such as hiking.
