Jaco Beukes from DWR Distribution shared his enthusiasm for the experience. “Hearing anything in L-ISA is always a pleasure. It’s almost impossible to explain until you experience it for yourself. Having so many people hear it for the first time created many ‘aha’ moments, and it was incredible to share that with so many of our church friends.”

Pete Owen, Sales Manager for Africa and India at L-Acoustics, also praised the success of the tour. “The event was awesome. It’s been brilliant to meet people, connect with them, and gain a deeper understanding of the local market. The response has been extremely encouraging.”
