FENIX training kicks off in Johannesburg with Durban, and Cape Town coming next!

FENIX training kicked off in Johannesburg with delegates gaining great insight from Alex Bryan from FENIX Stage! The theory delved deep into topics like technical advise, loading capacities, safety practises and maintenance. The fun part really was the practical side just showing how fantastic these lifting towers are and what a different they make in easing the load.

If you do have the opportunity, please don't miss out on the training taking place in Durban and Cape Town whether you own Fenix or not. It's a great system and probably something you'll want to add to your stock.
