

Hello Paul Hadfield!

Posted on July 3, 2019

Paul Hadfield, Prolyte Group Distributor Manager, will be in South Africa for Mediatech. By reading his feedback, one can't help wondering if he wouldn't be as comfortable behind an audio console as he is working with trussing!

Your Biggest fear?

Hello Paul Hadfield!

Going deaf! I love music and don't think I could ever be without it, I have a huge vinyl record collection so not being able to enjoy that is my greatest fear!

What's your favourite childhood book?

A funny pop-up book called Haunted House...I have a mint copy at home that's worth a few quid and I read it to my son, Bobby when he was young.

Would you rather go to a club, house party or a small get together of four or five friends?

House party!! Hosted by me! So I get to play my records of course!
