A family man who loves animals and has been to South Africa before with his own children, it is our pleasure to introduce you to Julian Young, Sales Manager at World Marketing Associates, who represent a range of products including Audix.

Friday night—would you rather stay in or go out?

It depends on the company and the event.

Hobby or interests?

A return to the love of vinyl records; walking with my dog; live music; genealogy.

If you could describe yourself in terms of a flavour, what flavour would you be?

I would like to think something subtle and complex, with different nuances and notes, a mixture.
