

Justin of Mondiale to visit South Africa

Posted on July 5, 2019

Justin: "Okay here's a photo I found, not much of me more one of the many children and one of his many dinosaurs, but I like it!"

If you want to have a chat with someone who loves his family, loves the industry and has a delightful sense of humour, make sure you get to chat to Justin Gawne, CEO of Mondiale Media, during Mediatech Africa 2019.

If you were given one thousand acres of land, what would you do with it?

Start an Alpaca farm, and is this the prize?

What, if anything, have you ever re-gifted?

Honestly don't think I've ever re-gifted something?

Lighting or audio?

Video, I know I'm being difficult!
