introduction to binaural. You will be taken on a journey as he discusses how we hear 3-dimensional with only two ears, what happens in the brain and how this knowledge is utilized for IEM mixes.

Klang believe that a perfect monitor sound is the key to a perfect live performance. As leaders in immersive mixing, the workshop will allow attendees to enjoy a hands-on experience with the tech and knowledge into the future of immersive mixing.

The cost is R250 per person and includes a light lunch and refreshments.

The course will be hosted at the DWR offices, Block C, Unit 1, Kimbult Industrial Park, 9 Zeiss Street, Laserpark, Honeydew.

Delegates to supply their own PC or Mac with the Klang application (<https://www.klang.com/#klangapp>) and headphones.
