

Looking forward to seeing Massimo Bolandrina from Claypaky

“You have travelled all over the world. What is the most amazing place you’ve ever been to and why?” we asked our dear friend, Massimo Bolandrina, Claypaky Sales Manager,

“The most amazing place.. it is very difficult to name,” said Massimo. “It’s like choosing a favourite book, song or movie. There is something amazing in every corner of this Earth. Anyway, I can tell something about two places: one is about my hometown, Bergamo, Italy and its surroundings... I suggest to visit it and have a walk in the old town: its medieval walls just became part of Unesco Heritage last week! Of course, you can stop by Claypaky while you’re there!

“The other story is about Cape Town. Being on Table Mountain and looking down at the oceans and landscape made me think, ‘Yes, now I can say I have seen something!’ This picture comes from that day. Thank you to the people who took me there.”
