

Louise Stickland to visit Mediatech Africa

Posted on July 3, 2019

A dear friend to so many of us in South Africa, and someone who has promoted our local stories internationally, it is a great pleasure to welcome Louise Stickland to Mediatech Africa 2019.

Louise is a talented journalist and is responsible for the Robe PR. We asked her a few questions:

When future generations look back on our generation, what will they laugh at us for?

In irony, hopefully, Extinction Rebellion!

Would you rather never have to wash dishes or never have to do laundry?
