

Meet up with DiGiCo's Ian Staddon at Mediatech

Ian Staddon with his kids and Dave Rat of Rat Sound, front of house at Ted Hot Chilli Peppers in his village of Knebworth!!

Ian Staddon of DiGiGo was asked an indispensable question: What was your favourite toy growing up?

"I really cannot remember which was my favourite toy, but I do remember having this big NASA space buggy as a large toy vehicle," Ian recalls. "I tried to find it on line, but cannot find anything quite the same now! Why do you need to know?"

ha ha! Thanks Ian, see you soon at Mediatech!
