

Robe's first official Mediatech

Posted on July 13, 2015

Ondřej Hegar, Nathan Wanmm Ales Gill and Jiri Baros from Robe. Josef Valchar and Harry von don Stemmen will also be in SA for Mediatech.

For the very first time, Robe Lighting s.r.o. will have its own stand at Mediatech, the biannual media and entertainment technology trade show for Africa. Mediatech will be held from the 15 to 17 July at The Dome, Northgate, Johannesburg.

BMFL Blade

The Robe team is already familiar with South Africa, with regular visits to distributor, DWR Distribution. "We have enjoyed many Roadshows and keep in active contact with Robe users in South Africa," said Harry von don Stemmen, Robes International Sales Director. "Mediatech, gives South Africans in particular who are not always able to travel to international trade fairs the opportunity to see the latest products available. The Robe team looks forward to personally meeting with visitors and demonstrating the latest products as well as supporting DWR."
