

See you soon Andy Webb

Freelance Lighting Designer for Robe, Andy Webb, is soon to arrive in South Africa. “What is the sound you love the most?” we asked him.

Andy replied, “In terms of my favourite sound well, not really sure I have one; Love the sound of the Ferrari Sports cars, amazed how loud a male lion roar is if that counts? ?

If you said favourite smell, I’ve got lots of those! Haha Freshly laid Tarmac, 2 stroke petrol engines, just to give you a couple!”

It seems if Andy wasn’t a LD, he may have been a race car driver! See you soon!
