When are you happiest?

I'm most happy when I'm spending quality time with my family, even though I love my job!

If you could dedicate your life to solving one problem, what problem would you choose?

If I could dedicate my life to solving one problem it would be finding a cure for sarcasm! (P.S. the last comment about spending quality time with my family wasn't sarcasm!)

Your favourite animal?

My favourite animal would be a lion, I'm a Leo so it seems right!
